2007 School Theatre Program

Mr McGee and the Biting Flea by Pamela Allen

Presented by Patch Theatre Company

“A wonderful experience for children emphasising the magic of theatre… utterly adorable…”
Colin Rose, Sydney Sunday Herald

Six whimsical stories by the award winning children’s writer are presented in this surprising, charming, funny and frenetic production. The stories emerge from dozens of suitcases and crates as three curious warehouse workers transform a storeroom into enchanting little miracles of music and play.

Mr McGee and The Biting Flea celebrates the possibilities of storytelling using the immediacy of theatre and the potential of children’s imaginations.

Monday 12 November 2007, 1pm
Tuesday 13 November 2007, 10am, 12pm
Running time 50 mins
Suitable for ages 4-8 years

Written by Pamela Allen, Directed by Dave Brown, Composer Timothy Sexton, Designer Dean Hills
Lighting Dave Green, Presented by Gardens Theatre and Patch Theatre Company

The Australian Government is proud to be associated with this tour through the national performing arts touring program, Playing Australia, which gives Australians across the country the opportunity to see some of our best performing arts.
